From the Pastor:

I received the following email from Todd Arrowood which I want to share with you.

Pastor Steve,

The following was written by my Mother's cousin's grandson. I think Watson was truly inspired and guided by the Lord in this composition and we wanted to share it.

Todd

Watson Coker, Grade 5
 I pray to you, Oh God, that eternally
 When people see me, it's Christ who they'll see;
 When people love me, Christ is who they'll love;
 And when people speak of me, they'll speak of Christ above;
 And when people befriend me, Christ is their greatest friend;
 When people tend to me, it's Christ to whom they tend;
 When people turn to me, toward Christ, it's Christ to whom they turn;
 And when people yearn for me, it's Christ for whom they yearn;
 When people need me, it's Christ who they will need;
 And when people follow me, they'll know Christ's the one who leads.
 Oh, God, I'll pray these things 'til your work of me is done.
 Please God. Make me like your only son.

Watson attends St. Martins Episcopal School in Atlanta, Georgia. When I read this I could not help but think of the Easter Morning liturgy when we profess our faith in Christ and follow with this paragraph.

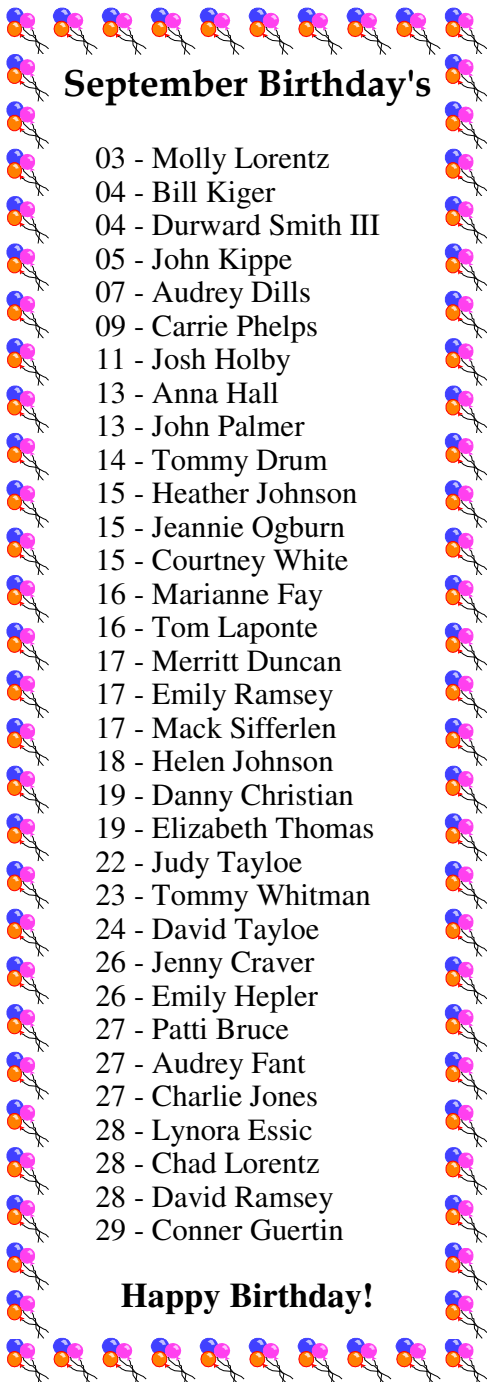

“We thank you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the wise and self assured, and have revealed them unto children. Yes, Father for such was your gracious will. Father glorify your name.”

This is a prayer we would all do well to pray.

Pastor Steve

Happy Birthday!

Church isn't where you meet.
 Church isn't a building. Church is what you do. Church is who you are. Church is the human outworking of the person of Jesus Christ. Let's not go to Church, let's be the Church.

—Bridget Willard

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP
 BREAKFAST & WORKDAY
Saturday, Sept. 17,
 8:00 AM-12:00 PM
 Enjoy a delicious breakfast before you go outside to work around the church grounds. Bring yard tools! All men of the church are invited.

College Student's Addresses Needed!

Please turn in to the church office addresses & emails for all new and returning college students for the 2011-2012 school year. For your convenience, address forms are on the hallway bulletin board.

THANK YOU NOTE FROM THE HOLLIFIELD FAMILY

Thank you to everyone in our wonderful "church family" for your cards, prayers, food and other help you have provided during Susan's illness. Susan finished radiation on August 24th but will continue chemo. More tests will be taken the end of September. We would appreciate your continuing prayers for Susan.

Thank You Note From Verona Hiatt

Thank you to my wonderful church family for all the prayers, calls, cards and visits during my hospitalization and recovery.

OCTOBER NEWSLETTER
 ARTICLES DUE
 MONDAY, SEPT. 19
 BY 3:00 PM

Women's Fellowship

The annual Fall Breakfast is fast approaching...October 15 from 7-11 AM. Please invite your friends, neighbors and family.

The Rural Hall Ramblers

Saturday, September 10

Airborne & Special Operations Museum

We will leave from the church at 9:00 AM, stop in Sanford to have lunch at Smithfield Barbecue, then touring the museum. Admission is free. The museum has a theatre (tickets are $4) and a simulator (tickets are $5). If you purchase both as a combo, the ticket price will be $8. We'll leave the museum around 4:00 and will stop for supper on the way back to church. Remember to bring money for food and souvenirs. A sign-up sheet is posted on the bulletin board behind the sanctuary. This will be a fun and informative trip — Don't Miss It!

The Airborne and Special Operations Museum is handicap friendly. So everyone can enjoy the trip. The main exhibit gallery moves the visitor through time, starting in 1940 with the conception of the U.S. Army Parachute Test Platoon and ending with today's airborne and special operations units. Much has changed in the world since the battles of World War II and conflicts of the Cold War era, but the courage and dedication of the American soldier is a common bond that ties each generation together.

TRUNK OR TREAT & FALL FESTIVAL OCTOBER 22 — 5:00-7:00 PM

Mark your calendars and be thinking about trunk decorating ideas because Trunk or Treat is just around the corner – Saturday, October 22. In addition to Trunk or Treat, we will have carnival games in the Fellowship Hall and hot dogs and drinks at the Pavilion. Sign up to decorate a trunk...the signup sheet is on the Missions Bulletin Board behind the sanctuary. Bible themes are encouraged but not required! Please, nothing gross or scary! And, as usual, we will need TONS of candy. A box for candy donations is in the elevator lobby.

Thanks!

Church Council Reports
Due in the Church Office by
3:00 PM on Monday, October 17

Church Council will be held following a shortened service of worship on Sunday, November 6. A report packet from various groups of our church will be placed in your boxes two weeks prior to Church Council. Council Reports are needed from Church Board Vicechair, All Church Committees, Fellowship Groups, Building Fund and Church Treasurer. Please key your reports (except for treasurer's report) to our congregation's statement of purpose and to the following questions: What aspects of the statement of purpose have you attempted to fulfill through your work during the past year? What plans do you have for the coming year?

Reports don't have to be long, just let us know about your group, what you've been doing and what you hope to do in the future.

Senior Services Presents
“Welcome to Medicare” Seminar

This seminar is for people who will be going onto Medicare soon, but it also covers the changes to Medicare which current recipients may find useful. People will have the opportunity to be put in touch with Seniors’ Health Insurance Information Program volunteers who will do personalized research for them on how the different available supplemental insurance plans would affect their individual situation.

There is no cost or pre-registration required for either session.

From around the Southern Province

As time goes on, the Regional Conferences of Churches, newly created in 2010’s reorganization of the Southern Province, are gearing up with joint meetings, services, mission projects, work crews, pulpit exchanges. As an example, in the South Wachovia Regional Conference, Enterprise, Friedland, Immanuel-New Eden, Pine Chapel, and Union Cross held a “Summer Gathering” on August 20 with a potluck dinner, fellowship and a variety show. Among the performers was a new group ominously named the “Pathetic Parsons.” No word on whether they lived up to their name.

The “Bring a Friend” idea is catching on, at least at Mayodan, which will have two such Sundays this fall. The first will be October 2 with a potluck to follow. The second will be November 27 with the church anniversary lovefeast but no potluck since everyone will already have had plenty of food that Thanksgiving weekend.

We dingalings—that’s us handbellers—often wind up in the strangest places ringing our hearts out. This summer Olivet’s Morning Star Ringers wound up “California Dreamin” at Downey Moravian Church, and while out West stopped at the famous Crystal Cathedral to play.
