From The Pastor:

Not long ago I looked at my bookshelf and saw a copy of the children's book, Tell Me a Story. I remember having that book read to me when I was very little. The most impressive part of that book was a lovefeast candle in the very beginning that had fold out trimming when the candle was new...at the end of the book, the candle had burned down. Later editions of this book did not have that special feature.

Today the most impressive part of the book is the title. It reminds me how important it is to tell our stories of faith to one another. This happens in the Gemeinschaft groups and I'm sure it happens privately among us. I think it is important for us to share how Christ has impacted our lives so we may be witnesses to one another. I have been thinking about ways in which we can learn to write our spiritual journeys. Maybe we can have a four week writing group journey!

When we sing "Tell Me the Stories of Jesus", we sometimes forget that since Jesus lives forever, the stories haven't stopped with those of the Bible. The stories are still in the lives of each person who has met him. What is your story of Christ...will you tell it to us?

Pastor Steve

Service Recordings

If you or someone you know is unable to attend the Sunday Morning Worship service and would like to have a cassette tape of the service, please let the Church Office know. If you would like a tape, but have no way of playing it, we can take care of that for you as well. If you have internet access, a recording of the Sunday Morning service is posted on the church's website each week and we would be more than happy to assist you in being able to listen to Sunday Worship. This service is available to everyone, whether you've missed the service or not, sometimes, you just want to hear the music or message more than once! If you have any questions about the recordings on tape or on the website, give Page Mikol a call at 969-9040 and she will be more than happy to assist you!

Mission Opportunity

A mission team from Bethlehem, Pennsylvania area churches is planning an October-November mission trip to Mississippi to work on Katrina relief. As in previous trips, they stop in Rural Hall for an overnight stay in each direction and we feed and house them. A team of 15-20 will arrive on Friday night, October 30. Their return will be Saturday night, November 7.

Here's the mission opportunity: willing souls are needed to offer a bed(s) for an individual(s) for 2 nights, October 30 and November 7. You only have to provide a bed...the Missions & Evangelism Team will take care of all the feeding. If you can help, please let Judy Tayloe know how many beds you have (i.e. 1 twin, 1 double, 1 queen, 1 couch, etc). The rooming situation will not be known until closer to their departure, but it would be helpful to know what housing options are available.

Rural Hall Moravian Church has earned quite a reputation for its hospitality, good food, and sweet tea! Thanks for offering to help! Please contact Judy Tayloe at 724-6714 (home), 407-7728 (cell) or by email: judytayloe@triad.rr.com.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP NEWS

Our Fall Breakfast will be Saturday, October 10 from 7:00 until 11:00 AM. The people of our church will also be showing off their cooking skills with a bake sale. Please volunteer to bake items when Elizabeth Lancaster calls or sign up on the sheet in the hallway. We will also be selling chicken pies. Several vendors will have tables with their special items for sale, an opportunity to get some early Christmas shopping done. We need people to help with the breakfast so if you are interested, please see Judy Joyce, Myra Perryman or Susan Thomas.

The Jim Shore Christmas Angel raffle is still underway. Tickets are $1.00 with the drawing at the Breakfast (you do not have to be present to win). See a Women's Fellowship member for tickets.

Our circles have started back up. If you have not yet joined a circle, please feel free to visit one or all three. It is a wonderful time of fellowship and Bible study.

Thank you to the ladies who attended our last general meeting. We voted to purchase 3 white hydrangeas that could be used for flower arrangements in the future. They have been planted around the church.

Mark on your calendar our next General Fellowship meeting for Thursday, November 12 at 6:30 PM. Please bring an appetizer or dessert. The annual Candle Trimming will follow our meal. All ladies are invited to come. If you have never trimmed a candle, don't worry, there will be plenty of people to teach you. Also, please bring an unwrapped toy for our Christmas toy drive.

Come get involved with the women of our church, friendships can be made and we have a lot of fun while doing God's work.

Susan Thomas

A candy collection box has been placed in the elevator lobby to place your candy donations. If you've never decorated a car trunk before and have questions, please contact Judy Tayloe at 724-6714 (home), 407-7728 (cell), or by email: judytayloe@triad.rr.com.
